

WEEKLY MAYSVILLE EAGLE

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, BY THOMAS M. GREEN.

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUUM, IN ADVANCE.
Office on Second street, between Court and Market.

MAYSVILLE, KY., APRIL 1, 1869.

On Tuesday a vote was taken in the House of Representatives on the question whether that body would recede from its disagreement to the Senate amendment to the House bill repealing the Tenure-of-office bill. The Senate amendment suspends the bill during President GRANT's administration, but does not repeat it. The House refused to recede by a vote of 60 against 106. The House then voted to insist on its disagreement and to consent to a Committee of Conference. The Speaker appointed Messrs. BUTLER of Massachusetts, WADSWORTH of Wisconsin, and BINGHAM as the Committee.

On Wednesday, the Conference Committee made their report. They agreed on a bill which repeals the first and second sections of the original Tenure-of-office act of March 2d, 1867. The first section of the Senate amendment to the recent repealing bill of the House is left untouched and is as follows:

"That every man holding any civil office shall be liable to be called, or hereafter may be called, and with the advice of the Senate, and who shall have become duly qualified to act therein, shall be entitled to hold such office during the term for which he shall have been appointed, unless sooner removed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, or by the appointment, with the like advice and consent, of a successor in his place, except as herein otherwise provided."

The second section is amended so as to read as follows:

"That during any recess of the Senate the President is hereby empowered, in his discretion, to suspend any civil officer appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, except Judges of the United States Courts, until the end of the session of the Senate, and to designate some suitable person, subject to be removed in his discretion by the designation of another to perform the duties of such suspended officer in the meantime, and such person so designated shall take the oath and give the bonds required by law to be taken and given by the suspended officer, and shall, during the time of performance of duty, be subject to all the laws and regulations of such office, no part of which shall belong to the office suspended, and it shall be the duty of the President, within thirty days after the commencement of every session of the Senate, except for any office in the place of which he is suspended, and if he declines, during such session, shall refuse to advise and consent to an appointment in the place of any suspended officer, then, and not otherwise, the President shall nominate another person, as soon as practicable, to succeed the Senate for said office."

The report was adopted by the Senate by a vote of 42 votes to 5 nays, and by the House by a vote of 106 to 67 nays. Much disappointment exists at this present, the friends of repeal regarding the present as more infamous than the original bill. It was hurried through on a demand for the previous question without discussion or explanation. The repealers consider themselves betrayed by BUTLER, who voted for the report, and it is rumored that an effort will be made to induce the President to veto the bill.

Mr. JOHNSON was ridiculed mercilessly about "my policy," which was his hobby, but he did not deserve the lashing GRANT does for his nepotism. It has been nothing but "my family" or "my friends" since GRANT has been "running the machine." The N. Y. World truly says: "Mr. GRANT has already nominated more of his wife's relations to public posts than any President before him ever contrived to do in a full four years term. He has not hesitated to give, over and over again, his own personal feelings for and relations with individuals as his sole and sufficient reason for pressing them into the public service; and this in the face of his reiterated assertion that he meant to leave it to the heads of departments to fill the subordinate positions in the public service. He began his Presidential work by illegally attempting to interfere with the operation of pardons issued by his predecessor; and when he finds himself compelled to recede from his course he does not hesitate to say that he entered upon it 'without having looked into the matter at all.' Have we here the justice and the sense of responsibility of a simple and resolute, or the indifference to justice and the nepotism of a weak and willful nature?" Really, the man seems to have, but two ideas in his head: West Point, and his wife's relations. It is fortunate we are not a nation of Mormons; for if GRANT had Solomon's domestic establishment there would be nine hundred postmistresses appointed and all of his children and kin unprovided for. BRIGHAM YOUNG will probably adopt GRANT's family specific, and try the effect of it in his dominions by appointing all of the Mrs. YOUNGS to fat offices, he would have peace.

The Cabinet is informed that the Col. M. C. TAYLOR, to whom SAM McKEE recently referred, is Col. MARION C. TAYLOR, of Shelbyville, one of the many gallant soldiers in the Mexican war from Kentucky, and who won his title of Union by bravely fighting for it in the Union army from the beginning to the close of the late war. We have known Colonel TAYLOR for many years, and never heard anything to his discredit save his radicalism. His private life is unsupposed. MILTON TAYLOR, to whom the Herald supposes McKEE referred, is another man and has had nothing to do with politics for many years except to cast his vote. He is so old a man that the public might be safely spared any allusion to his career or misfortunes.

CHARLES SCHUYLER HAMILTON has been appointed U. S. Marshal for the District of Wisconsin. He is a grandson of ALEXANDER HAMILTON, the greatest of American statesmen, and served as a Major General during the war. He was a classmate of the President at West Point.

The Big Sandy Herald says that the late "Confederacy" so-called, was a recognized Government. By what nation or government was it recognized as a government?

We agree with all the Sun says concerning Mr. WADSWORTH's abilities, but we doubt if the Attorney Generalship or any other Cabinet appointment was at his command. We have not heard that he ever subscribed to any of the handsome presents of money or houses given to GEN. GRANT. He was not an original secessionist like CREEFELL, and he is not the most distantly related to GEN. GRANT or to GEN. GRANT's wife.

HIRAM T. PEARCE, Esq., died at his residence in Maysville on Monday morning, in the fifty-seventh year of his age. He was born in Fleming county on the 29th of August, 1812, and was the son of WILLIAM PEARCE, deceased, a successful business man of that county. Mr. PEARCE was taken sick in January, and continued to suffer so terribly that death must have been a relief to his paralyzed and sorely stricken body. He looked forward to his death calmly, and while reluctant to leave the family that loved him, yet expressed resignation to the decree that summoned him hence. He remained conscious, with clear intellect, up to a very short time previous to his death.

Mr. PEARCE had been very successful in business, having accumulated a large estate in mercantile pursuits and in banking. He was an outspoken and sincere man, despising all hypocrites and shams, and was too proud a man not to be truthful and straightforward.

Business men of Cincinnati must see that they have all the railroad connections they need West, and South-West, North, and North-East, and North-East, and now the remaining link is the Railroad from Paris to Richmond, South and South-East, forming nearly an air line with the Knoxville, Nashville and Memphis branches, which will complete the connection necessary.

But in order to make this road, Cincinnati must take hold of the matter in earnest, and with the material aid of the Central Railroad, and of those wealthy counties through which it must pass, will make it certain.

This road can be made with comparative little cost, since the grade will be light. The entire distance, running as it will through the beautiful broad level lands of Bourbon and Clark, is only sixteen miles to Winchester.

Mr. PEARCE was President of the Maysville and Lexington Railroad Company, the success of which he took great interest. In him the community has lost one of its most active and influential citizens, and his family a staunch support and a kind and liberal friend and protector. His sorrowing widow and children have the sympathies of many relations and friends of the deceased and of the community at large in their affliction.

EDWARD HUSTON MURRAY has been appointed U. S. Marshal for Kentucky. We feel at loss to account for it, as he has given GRANT no presents, is not related to him or his wife or any of their family. The appointment is an excellent one, and our only regret at it is that it removes W. A. MERRIWEATHER, who has made a faithful officer. MURRAY was major of Gen. JAS. S. JACKSON's cavalry regiment when it was first organized, and commanded it as its Colonel before he was of age. He was brevetted Brigadier for gallantry on the field, and when in command of a cavalry brigade in Southern Kentucky made himself popular with the people by the enforcement of rigid discipline. He will make an honest officer, and will be indisposed necessarily to harpase the people.

OHIO is a funny State. They hang people for murder over there. On Friday ANDREW PRICE died of a heart attack at Ironton just for killing a little dwarf cobble whose money he wanted. We are more civilized than that in Kentucky. If it jury does not find the accused not guilty on account of drunken insanity, or divide as to the verdict and give a chance for bail and escape, the Governor pardons or commutes. The sentiment of juries in Kentucky is against the exection of the law.

The Lexington Statesman gives to the Louisville Democrat all the credit of preventing the Unionists of Kentucky following LINCOLN into the slough of abolition, centralization, and despotism. Certainly Mr. HARNEY's efforts were powerful and had great effect, but we have always claimed a little of the credit for ourself, and we are not willing that it shall all be given to Mr. HARNEY and the Democrat, even though one is dead and the other is about to die.

JOHN M. ELLIOTT has applied to Congress to remove his disabilities under the Fourteenth Amendment. We hope Congress will do so. But then what will become of the great suit in which Mr. ELLIOTT proposed to test the constitutionality of the infamous measure and vindicate in his person the rights of the people? Perhaps Mr. ELLIOTT does not think quite so much of course as he did when a candidate.

GRANT is not ungrateful. Gen. E. H. HOBSON has already received reward for his conversion to radicalism. He has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Fourth Kentucky District. He will make a good one. He is a very poor politician, but was a good soldier and will make an honest official.

A PARTY by the name of JOHNSON, who served his country by marrying the cousin of Gen. GRANT's wife, has been made Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third Ohio District. What else he ever did to entitle him to executive patronage we are not informed.

We beg the pardon of the Louisville Democrat. It is not dead, nor is it about to die. The weekly Democrat has been discontinued, but the daily will be issued from the office of the Courier-Journal at Syracuse.

The circumstances connected with the killing of H. Rives Pollard, editor of the Southern Opinion, at Richmond, Va., by young James Grant, are fresh in the minds of our readers. The sequel to this tragic affair is found in the following marriage announcement, from the Richmond papers of the 19th inst.: "On Tuesday the 16th inst., at 6 o'clock P. M., by the Rev. J. H. Morrison, D. Dr. Reuben Ford, of Goochland county, Virginia, to Mary Stuart, daughter of W. H. Grant, Esq., of this city. No cards." The Rev. Reuben Ford referred to is the young man mentioned in the article in the Southern Opinion which brought about the death of Mr. Pollard.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food, the beauties of landscape, the joys of companionship, the riches of literature, or the honors of station and renown, must preserve their health, the effect of foul, injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshing sleep, low spirits, feverish burnings, etc., which are the symptoms of that horrid disease, Dyspepsia, which assumes a thousand shapes, and points toward a miserable life and premature decay. Plantation Bitter will prevent, over come, counteract all of these effects. They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German cologne, and sold at half the price.

CLEVELAND is proud of a citizen woman who has had seven husbands within eight years. One was killed in the army and another in a street fight. The other five survive her having been divorced from four of them. Her daughter has been twice married and divorced, and is now ready to snap up a third man before her seventeenth birthday comes round.

CHARLES SCHUYLER HAMILTON has been appointed U. S. Marshal for the District of Wisconsin. He is a grandson of ALEXANDER HAMILTON, the greatest of American statesmen, and served as a Major General during the war. He was a classmate of the President at West Point.

The Big Sandy Herald says that the late "Confederacy" so-called, was a recognized Government. By what nation or government was it recognized as a government?

CINCINNATI, PARIS and Richmond Rail Roads.

This important road, which is to connect Richmond and Cincinnati, is being warmly advocated by the people of the country through which it is to pass.

We live in a fast age—and believe in lightning speed.

This road is believed by the majority, to be of great necessity and certainly ought to be built.

Business men of Cincinnati must see that they have all the railroad connections they need West, and South-West, North, and North-East, and North-East, and now the remaining link is the Railroad from Paris to Richmond, South and South-East, forming nearly an air line with the Knoxville, Nashville and Memphis branches, which will complete the connection necessary.

But in order to make this road, Cincinnati must take hold of the matter in earnest, and with the material aid of the Central Railroad, and of those wealthy counties through which it must pass, will make it certain.

ATTEMPT TO PASS COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—A man by the name of Joseph Napiers, hailing from Casey county, was arrested here last Monday, on the charge of attempting to pass counterfeit money. Several attempts were made to get the bill off—a $50 Greenback—but he failed. He had an examining trial before Judge Young, and gave bail to the amount of $100 to appear next Monday. Advocate.

DO NOT TRIFLE WITH DANGER.—A single spark may kindle a flame that will consume a city, and small ailments neglected, may end in fatal disorders. Bearing this fact in mind, let the first symptoms of debility or nervous prostration be met promptly with invigorating treatment. Foremost among the vegetable tonics of the age stands HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and whenever the vital powers seem to languish, or there is any reason to suspect that the animal functions are failing, the just nature and purification of the animal kingdom demands that this invaluable invigorant and antiseptic should at once be resorted to. Indigestion always precedes all other bodily powers. Sometimes it happens that the appetite demands more food than the stomach can digest; though not more, perhaps, than is required to keep up the full strength of the frame. The object, under such circumstances, is to increase the digestive capacity of the assimilating organ, so as to make it equal to the load imposed upon it by the appetite, and capable of assimilating the building materials of the body. This is the secret of the animal kingdom.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are recommended as a specific and certain remedy.

BISMARCK has decided that his two sons shall not enter the diplomatic service. The reason of this decision, it is thought, is the conviction he has acquired that the youths are not peculiarly gifted. His daughter possesses by far more ability than his brothers, and, during her mother's recent illness, officiated as the Count's private secretary. His wife generally performs that duty.

EARLY MARRIAGE.—Dr. Franklin advocated early marriage. Essays for Young Men, on this and other subjects, being a guide to Marriage and Conjugal Felicity, by benevolent Physicians, sent in, in sealed letter envelopes, free of charge.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Elias Collins, of Sardis, sold his fast trotting horse, Dexter No. 2, to a party in Cincinnati for $400.

Westward Ho!—Bill Rees and Alf. Ball of this county, left for the gold and silver mountains of Idaho last week.

Elder Jno. A. Gano and his son Gen. B. M. Gano, will commence a protracted meeting at Mayslick on the Saturday before the 5th Sunday in May.

Rev. Dr. Robinson will preach only once in this city, which will be to-morrow (Wednesday night) next, at the Presbyterian church, at 7 o'clock.

Militancy.—Mrs. Hudnut has received her spring stock, embracing many beautiful articles, and will take pleasure in exhibiting them to customers at her store on Front street. Give her a call.

Stock Sale.—Messrs. Yancey & Alexander will have their usual stock sales on Monday next, county court day. A good opportunity is presented for selling or purchasing stock.

Sale.—On the 29th inst. at the sale of Margaret and Frank Clegg, in Lewisburg, one horse and lot was sold for $175 to Napoleon Lee, and one old cow, $35.75. Household and kitchen furniture brought fair prices.

Sale.—The stallion Majestic was sold by L. B. Goggan, Auctioneer, to C. R. Collins for $15. Also a Jack to the same for $500. Five shares of stock in the Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Company were sold at $100 per share.

One pimple is a blemish, two pimples are mortification, three pimples are a disgust, but four or more pimples are truly distressing to any one. Palmer's Vegetable Cosmetic Lotion is the sovereign remedy for all such afflictions.

If our farmers would check the raid of pestiferous curs let them pasture their sheep and cattle together. An old cow with good long horns makes a good shepherd, and will run every intruding mutton-loving dog out of the field. Try it.

Religious Notice.—A protracted meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church in this city, Independent Synod, next week, beginning on Wednesday night and continuing through the week. Rev. Stuart Robinson of Louisville, will preach.

Correction.—Rev. Dr. Robinson's appointment at the Presbyterian Church is not for a protracted meeting, as stated in our last issue. He will preach on Wednesday night, April 7th, and possibly Thursday night, and then pass on to other appointments.

A Lead mine has been found on the banks of Thomas Pyles on Licking river.

A specimen of the ore was brought to Sardis and melted, which produced a fine article of pure lead. Great interest is felt in that section touching the probable resources of the mine.

Meat Stolen.—One night last week some thief or thieves entered the meat house of A. C. Shackleford, near Mayfield, and stole 150 pounds of bacon. Sheep killing dogs and mean thieves will get all the bacon and mutton in the country if the farmers don't look sharp.

Cod. L. B. Goggan, of this county, has a field on which he has grown corn for nineteen years in succession, the last crop being the best. He generally hogs it down and thus keeps the soil in good condition. It is not what we raise on our fields but what we take from those that impoverish them.

Fire.—The roof of Mr. Shepherd's house on corner of Limestone and Fourth streets, caught fire on Monday morning. The flames were soon extinguished and but little damage was done. The engines were promptly on the ground, but fortunately there was little occasion for their services.

Appointments in the Sixth District.—Geo. M. Linn has been appointed Assessor and John S. Nixon Collector, of Internal Revenue in the Sixth (Covington) District of Kentucky. The latter is a friend of the Grant family, and the former is a member of the same church with "Pap" Grant.

The telegraph reports that there are sixteen applicants for the position of Special Mail Agent for Kentucky, one of whom is W. Stees Dobyns of this city. He is violently opposed by Sam McKee, who has not scruples to charge him with copperheadism. He is as warmly approved by Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, who endorses his Unionism. It is the only appointment Mr. Wadsworth has urged upon the Administration. The results will show whether McKee or Wadsworth is to be most influential with the Executive Department at Washington. We beg Mr. Wadsworth's pardon for naming him in such connection.

Pa. and Richmond Railroad.—On the 25th ult. a meeting was held in Winchester, in Clark county, for the purpose of sending delegates to the meeting of the friends of the Paris and Richmond Railroad, which will be held in the latter place the 5th inst. The meeting was addressed by Col. C. S. Hanson, and a large number of delegates were appointed. A meeting was to have been held in Paris on Thursday the 1st inst., for a similar purpose. The line of the proposed road runs through a very wealthy country and the people are amply able to build it. Whether they will do so or not is another question. The proposition of Bourbon to give only $200,000, when the road will cost $1,600,000, does not look much like it.

Police News.—On the 17th, Joseph Cady, a Justice, became intoxicated at the splendors of Maysville, and was fined $3 and costs.

On the 22d Jacob Miller and Joseph Slaford were before his Honor on the charge of fast driving, and were fined $3 and costs each.

On the 24th ult. Stephen Syphord was fined $5 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Stephen's offense against the dignity of the city was one which would not bear minute description.

On the same day Patrick Maloy inhaled a little too freely, and exercised his lungs upon the streets, for which he was fined $3 and costs.

On the same day John Kine, a native of the Green Isle, entered the "Martin Box," and made a brutal and ferocious assault upon one of the senators, a negro woman. Had he not been restrained by two women holding him he might have murdered his victim. He was wild with bad whisky. He was fined very lightly, only $5 and costs, but not having that amount he was sent to jail where he remained at the expense of the city until the 1st inst. when he was released.

On the 26th ult. George Taylor was drunk and disorderly, and was banished from the city.

Insurance.—We call attention to the statement of the Enterprise Insurance Company made in another column. The assets are $1,337,268.82, and the liabilities only $107,621.66. This would indicate a healthy condition. George H. Gill is the agent and may be found at the office of Taylor & Gill, ready at all times to attend to the business of the company.

Notice or Imported.—Meeting a neighbor's boy some time since we inquired whether his father's jack was a native or imported animal. Looking up with a shrewd grin, he naively replied: "Not jackey ported yet, but he will be when pap gets to the printing office and has his bills got out." Our young friend evidently mistook the word "imported" for "advertised"!

Turnpike Election.—On Monday the following persons were elected officers of the Maysville, Orangeburg and Mt. Carmel Turnpike Road Company, viz.

President.—J. D. Mayhugh.

Directors.—Seth B. Shackelford, Joseph Wallingford, Peter L. Parker, Alfred D. Morehead, William F. Kennan and Baldwin C. Foxworth.

Stock Sale.—Messrs. Yancey & Alexander will have their usual stock sales on Monday next, county court day. A good opportunity is presented for selling or purchasing stock.

A specimen of the ore was brought to Sardis and melted, which produced a fine article of pure lead. Great interest is felt in that section touching the probable resources of the mine.

Meat Stolen.—One night last week some thief or thieves entered the meat house of A. C. Shackleford, near Mayfield, and stole 150 pounds of bacon. Sheep killing dogs and mean thieves will get all the bacon and mutton in the country if the farmers don't look sharp.

Cod. L. B. Goggan, of this county, has a field on which he has grown corn for nineteen years in succession, the last crop being the best. He generally hogs it down and thus keeps the soil in good condition. It is not what we raise on our fields but what we take from those that impoverish them.

Fire.—The roof of Mr. Shepherd's house on corner of Limestone and Fourth streets, caught fire on Monday morning. The flames were soon extinguished and but little damage was done. The engines were promptly on the ground, but fortunately there was little occasion for their services.

Appointments in the Sixth District.—Geo. M. Linn has been appointed Assessor and John S. Nixon Collector, of Internal Revenue in the Sixth (Covington) District of Kentucky. The latter is a friend of the Grant family, and the former is a member of the same church with "Pap" Grant.

The telegraph reports that there are sixteen applicants for the position of Special Mail Agent for Kentucky, one of whom is W. Stees Dobyns of this city. He is violently opposed by Sam McKee, who has not scruples to charge him with copperheadism. He is as warmly approved by Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, who endorses his Unionism. It is the only appointment Mr. Wadsworth has urged upon the Administration. The results will show whether McKee or Wadsworth is to be most influential with the Executive Department at Washington. We beg Mr. Wadsworth's pardon for naming him in such connection.

Insurance.—We call attention to the statement of the Enterprise Insurance Company made in another column. The assets are $1,337,268.82, and the liabilities only $107,621.66. This would indicate a healthy condition. George H. Gill is the agent and may be found at the office of Taylor & Gill, ready at all times to attend to the business of the company.

Notice or Imported.—Meeting a neighbor's boy some time since we inquired whether his father's jack was a native or imported animal. Looking up with a shrewd grin, he naively replied: "Not jackey ported yet, but he will be when pap gets to the printing office and has his bills got out." Our young friend evidently mistook the word "imported" for "advertised"!

Turnpike Election.—On Monday the following persons were elected officers of the Maysville, Orangeburg and Mt. Carmel Turnpike Road Company, viz.

President.—J. D. Mayhugh.

Directors.—Seth B. Shackelford, Joseph Wallingford, Peter L. Parker, Alfred D. Morehead, William F. Kennan and Baldwin C. Foxworth.

Stock Sale.—Messrs. Yancey & Alexander will have their usual stock sales on Monday next, county court day. A good opportunity is presented for selling or purchasing stock.

Sale.—On the 29th inst. at the sale of Margaret and Frank Clegg, in Lewisburg, one horse and lot was sold for $175 to Napoleon Lee, and one old cow, $35.75. Household and kitchen furniture brought fair prices.

Sale.—The stallion Majestic was sold by L. B. Goggan, Auctioneer, to C. R. Collins for $15. Also a Jack to the same for $500. Five shares of stock in the Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Company were sold at $100 per share.

One pimple is a blemish, two pimples are a mortification, three pimples are a disgust, but four or more pimples are truly distressing to any one. Palmer's Vegetable Cosmetic Lotion is the sovereign remedy for all such afflictions.

If our farmers would check the raid of pestiferous curs let them pasture their sheep and cattle together. An old cow with good long horns makes a good shepherd, and will run every intruding mutton-loving dog out of the field. Try it.

Religious Notice.—A protracted meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church in this city, Independent Synod, next week, beginning on Wednesday night and continuing through the week. Rev. Stuart Robinson of Louisville, will preach.

Correction.—Rev. Dr. Robinson's appointment at the Presbyterian Church is not for a protracted meeting, as stated in our last issue. He will preach on Wednesday night, April 7th, and possibly Thursday night, and then pass on to other appointments.

A Lead mine has been found on the banks of Thomas Pyles on Licking river.

A specimen of the ore was brought to Sardis and melted, which produced a fine article of pure lead. Great interest is felt in that section touching the probable resources of the mine.
